

Recognition agreement signed

National Union of Mineworkers (NUM) President Senzeni Zokwana and Shaft Sinkers MD Jannie Hooman sign a Recognition Agreement. In terms of the agreement, finalised in February and described by Shaft Sinkers and the NUM as ground-breaking, Shaft Sinkers has formally recognised the NUM as the sole bargaining representative of all employees of the company who are NUM members. Zokwana says the agreement is significant because it will bring Shaft Sinkers' mining and shaft sinking teams together and ensure that all employees of Shaft Sinkers are represented equally.
